

DAMIAN MARK SMYTH

AWARD WINNING COACH / AUTHOR / TEDX SPEAKER / MINDSET EXPERT

Diagnosed with OCD, Depression, Stress and Anxiety - despite having all the 'trappings' of wealth and a successful career in marketing - Damian considered suicide as the only way out.

Living an 'outside-in' life was not making Damian happy or fulfilled, so much so that he considered killing himself to get freedom from the thoughts which were tormenting his everyday life. The symptoms of his distress were clear for all to see, with stress, anger and anxiety the daily 'fare'.

And then on February 26th, 2011, in a hotel in Heathrow, his whole life changed. He heard some words that changed his life forever and gave him freedom from his own thinking which he never thought was possible.

He found his soul-mate as a result and gave away everything he owned and now spreads the word about his recovery, sharing the stage with the likes of Apple co-founder, Steve Wozniak and the E-Myth author, Michael E. Gerber.

Damian has shared his story on the BBC, on stage at the World famous 'Alternatives', in a TEDx talk, and in front of thousands. He coaches and trains leaders as well as those in desperate need of freedom from their own destructive thinking, on a daily basis.
